WELCOME TO RUHR-UNIVERSITÄT BOCHUM
CREATING KNOWLEDGE NETWORKS

We are very glad that you have chosen to study at Ruhr-Universität Bochum (RUB) and we welcome you to our university!

Situated in the centre of the dynamic, hospitable Ruhr metropolis in the heart of Europe, RUB with its 20 faculties is home to 5,800 members of staff and approx. 43,000 students. On RUB campus people from around the world come together to achieve greatness. People from 130 countries research and study here. Approx. 6,300 international students are currently enrolled at RUB; in addition, RUB hosts around 500 exchange students every year.

RUBiss international student services (RUBiss) is your contact at the International Office at RUB, providing support when it comes to social, cultural and university matters as well as administrative and legal issues. Moreover, we organise various interesting and inspiring events every year that enrich your student life.

When you first arrive, you will face a number of challenges. This brochure is meant to assist you in finding your footing at RUB by providing a wealth of helpful information about the time prior to and during your studies. On the following pages, you will find answers to many questions pertaining to the enrolment process, your RUBCard, city registration, and many more. You should read the following information carefully.

We wish you a successful and unforgettable time at RUB!

Your RUBiss team
1. ENROLMENT

When you enrol at RUB, which is also referred to as matriculation, you will be supplied with your student ID (RUB-Card) as well as other documents. Enrolment must be done in person, and it takes place in the HZO building; your personal enrolment date is specified on your admission letter.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR ENROLMENT

In addition to the necessary university and language certificates, you will also need your admission letter, your ID (EU citizens) resp. your passport (non-EU citizens), and proof of health insurance.

HEALTH INSURANCE

- If you’re a student from a country of the European Union (EU) or from Switzerland, you can submit the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) from your native country.
- Students from Turkey can submit the A/T 11 form issued by their Turkish health insurance company.
Non-EU citizens have the following options:

- While studying in Germany, a statutory health insurance is recommended. It costs approx. € 90 per month and coverage begins at the start of the respective semester, i.e. on 1 October or 1 April. All German statutory health insurance companies offer very similar benefits for students. You find a list of all statutory health insurances here: https://www.krankenkassen.de/gesetzliche-krankenkassen/krankenkassen-liste/

- If you have a private health insurance either in your country of origin or in Germany, you will need to apply for an exemption from the compulsory health insurance (Befreiung von der Versicherungspflicht). You may get the document from one of the statutory health insurance companies. Not all private health insurance policies (e.g. travel insurance) are approved as sufficient health insurance for students in Germany.

SOCIAL CONTRIBUTION FEE

After enrolment, you will have one week to pay your social contribution fee. You will find a fact sheet with the necessary bank details in the documents provided during your enrolment.

The social contribution fee amounting to approx. € 350 is to be paid by all students – including exchange students – each semester. It is not a tuition fee. It covers the costs of the ticket for public transport, the access to “metropolradruhr” bicycles, as well as a contribution to the Academic Support Group (AKAFÖ) and the General Students’ Committee (AStA). In addition, RUB students can visit all theatre performances at “Schauspielhaus Bochum” free of charge.

There are two options to pay the social contribution fee:

- Cash deposit at the bank Sparkasse in the Uni-Center
  Present your fact sheet (Überweisungsdaten für den Sozialbeitrag) at Sparkasse and pay the contribution in cash. For cash deposits, a fee of € 5 will be charged. Two days later, you can print out your NRW-Ticket for public transport.

- Money transfer
  In order to make a transfer, you need to refer to the data specified in the fact sheet (IBAN, BIC/SWIFT and “Verwendungszweck”). Money transfer from an account at a German bank takes up to three days. International transfers generally take longer and might carry additional charges. You cannot print out your NRW-Ticket and your certificate of enrolment until your payment has been received by RUB.

If you are from a non-EU country or if your country of origin does not support the SEPA payment scheme, you will need a German bank account to pay your social contribution fee and your rent. Some banks offer giro accounts free of charge for students.
2. THE RUB-CARD

The RUB-Card is not only your student ID, it also offers many additional functions:

ECAMPUS
You can access eCampus, the administration system for students at computers equipped with card readers at RUB. In order to activate your RUB-Card, you must activate your data first: to do so, insert your student ID into the card reader and enter the 6-digit PIN that you received during your enrolment at RUB. Click on “Passwort zu loginID setzen” and enter your new password. It takes about an hour for the data to be activated.

INTERNET ACCESS
You can log in to the Wi-Fi network on campus, or use a network cable (Ethernet) in the AKAFÖ student halls, by entering your loginID as specified in your enrolment documents and your new password via this website: login.rz.rub.de

RUB EMAIL ACCOUNT
In order to use your RUB email account, you must register with your loginID and your password at RUB-Webmail: mail.rub.de Important!

Check your RUB email account regularly or forward your emails to your personal email account, because all official RUB emails will be sent to that address.
LOST OF THE RUB-CARD
If you have lost your RUB-card, the Registrar’s Office can issue you a new one. Before you apply for the new card you have to transfer €15 to the Registrar’s Office and bring them your bank statement. It is possible to transfer credit from the old card to the new one. However, you must know the card number (different from the matriculation number) or present the receipt from your last refill.

DOCUMENTS & CERTIFICATES
Using eCampus, you can print out the following documents:
- Certificate of Enrolment
- NRW-Ticket
- Transcript of Records

CAMPUSOFFICE & FLEXNOW
You can access CampusOffice via your eCampus homepage. This is where you register for courses for almost all faculties. The only exceptions are the engineering faculties and the Faculty of Management and Economics, which use the FlexNow system for exam registrations.

PAYMENT FUNCTIONS
You can use your student ID card to pay for various services on campus:

- AKAFÖ
  In the Mensa and other dining halls and cafés, you can pay for your food and drinks, in the AKAFÖ student halls for the washing machines and dryers. You can load your student ID either in the dining hall and café checkouts or at the vending machines in the Mensafoyer and Q-West.

- Printing Centre (Druckzentrum)
  If you wish to print or make copies on campus, you will need separate credit on your student ID card. You can load that credit in the Copycenter (SSC 0/219) and in the library (UB).
THE SEMESTER TICKET (NRW-TICKET)
The semester ticket is included in the social contribution fee, which is mandatory for all RUB students each semester. That means once RUB has received your payment, you can print the ticket either at the eCampus working places or at this link:

nrw-ticket.uv.ruhr-uni-bochum.de

Afterwards you can use all buses, underground trains, trams, urban railways and regional railways (RE/RB/IRE) in the entire state of North-Rhine Westphalia (NRW).
The NRW-Ticket has to be printed on white DIN A4 paper; the size must not be changed.
The ticket is only valid together with a photo ID document (ID card or passport). Here you find instructions how to use the ticket on your smartphone (in German only):

https://www.ruhr-uni-bochum.de/studierendensekretariat/studium/ticket.html.de

During these days, you will meet your Campus Guides, namely RUB students whom you can always ask for support and assistance, as well as other international students. You will visit your faculties and explore the campus together with the Campus Guides. The RUBiss team will answer your questions about studying and living in Bochum. Moreover, many interesting recreational activities await you:

If you moved to Bochum in order to study here, there are some formalities you will need to take care of. You will be provided with the relevant information during the orientation days or at the International Office.

REGISTERING YOUR ADDRESS AT THE CITY ADMINISTRATION OFFICE (BÜRGERBÜRRO)
You should register at the Bürgerbüro within two weeks of your arrival. In order to do so, please make an appointment online at the Bürgerbüro homepage:

EXTENDING YOUR VISA AT THE FOREIGNERS’ OFFICE (AUSLÄNDERBÜRRO)

After registering at the Bürgerbüro in Bochum, you will usually be sent a letter specifying your appointment at the Ausländerbüro. If you do not receive a letter specifying your appointment or if you live in another city, please get in touch with the responsible Ausländerbüro as soon as possible. You find the responsible contacts here:

The licence fee amounts to approx. € 18 per month, and international students are not exempted from it: www.rundfunkbeitrag.de
5. COURSE SELECTION AND TIMETABLE

At the beginning of each semester, you will draw up your own timetable by selecting lectures, seminars etc. from the course catalogue. Your best option is to follow the study programme schedules or recommendations for new students that are provided for many degrees.

If you have any questions about lectures and your study programme or if you require assistance drawing up your timetable, you can ask the departmental advisors or the departmental student committee of your faculty for help. The departmental student committees are bodies representing the interests of students in your discipline, and experienced students are happy to provide help and advice.

You can find more information about RUB’s departmental advisors (Studienfachberater) and departmental student committees (Fachschaften) here:
www.ruhr-uni-bochum.de/zsb/stud-beratung/fachbera

If you have come to RUB for one or two semesters as an exchange student (e.g. Erasmus+, DAAD, partnership or freemover), you will usually have been provided with the so-called learning agreement in advance – an overview of the courses that you wish to complete here. You too will have to make a timetable with selected lectures and seminars in order to organise your semester. If you have any questions regarding the subjects covered in the courses, or if you wish to compile or alter your learning agreement, you should contact your (Erasmus) departmental coordinator after arriving in Bochum. If you are not sure who your coordinator is, please ask the RUBiss team at the International Office.
